

Head of School Search Committee December 2018

CHARISSE COWAN PITRE is a professor and chair of the Department of K-12 Teaching, Learning and Social Justice in the College of Education at Seattle University. Her scholarship and teaching are in the area of educational equity and teacher development. Charisse joined the UPrep Board of Trustees in 2016 and currently serves on the Executive Committee as the Secretary. She also serves on the Trusteeship and Governance and Diversity and Community Committees. Charisse and her husband Paul are the parents of Gabrielle '22.

LAURA DOMOTO spent her career in commercial construction project management. At UPrep, Laura has volunteered in numerous roles on Parent Council including the past two years as President and is currently serving on the Parent Council Executive Committee as Past Executive. Laura joined the UPrep Board of Trustees in 2016. She currently serves on the Building, Finance, and Executive Committees and is the Vice-President of the Board. She and her husband, Don Mason, are the parents of Cameron '18 and Quinn '21.

KELLY HERRINGTON is University Prep's Director of College Counseling and Student Services. Kelly has served on NACAC's Human Relations Committee, the Coca Cola Scholarship Selection Committee, the College Board's Counseling and Admissions Assembly, and numerous college and mental health advisory boards. Prior to joining University Prep fourteen years ago, Kelly worked in higher education as an Associate Dean of Admissions and a Director of International Admissions.

CHERYL SCOTT (ex officio member) is a main principal for the McClintock Scott Group, which provides executive and board level counsel on matters of strategy, leadership and governance. She previously served as senior advisor for global programs at the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation and as the president and CEO of the Seattle-based Group Health. She and her spouse, Hannah Linden, are parents of William '21 and Mimi. Cheryl currently serves as President of the Board of Trustees.

MEG SHORTELL is a Middle School math teacher who is serving in her sixth school year here at UPrep and celebrating her tenth year as a teacher. In her time here, Meg co-created the blended Middle School math course, worked with Kelly Herrington to develop the Social Emotional Learning program in the Middle and Upper schools, served as a Middle School grade-level dean for three years, and helps co-direct the eighth grade Capstone intensive program.

TORI RAGEN is an attorney (not currently practicing). She joined the UPrep Board of Trustees in 2014 and has chaired both the Advancement and Trusteeship and Governance Committees. She currently serves on the Executive Committee as well as the Next Generation Learning Committee. Tori and her husband Cam are the parents of Jackson '17, McKenna '19, and Carly '22.

TIM RICHEY is a designer and project architect at SRG Partnership with a focus on 21st century learning environments. He is the co-chair of the American Institute of Architects Honor Awards program. Tim joined the UPrep Board of Trustees in 2018 and currently serves on the Building Committee. Tim and his wife Charlotte are the parents of Jacob '17 and Aida '24.

KOBI YAMADA is the President/CEO of Compendium and is a multiple New York Times Bestselling Author. Kobi joined the UPrep Board of Trustees in 2018. He currently serves on the Finance Committee. Kobi and his wife Heidi are the parents of Shale '23 and Ever '25.